AFP Charter

Agence France-Presse is a multi-lingual, multi-cultural news agency whose mission is to provide accurate, balanced and impartial coverage of news wherever and whenever it happens in the world on a continuous basis.

Be it in text, photo, video, graphics or any other format, AFP's duty is to seek and publish the truth in an increasingly disrupted world of information.

As guaranteed by its founding statute, AFP speaks with an independent voice free of political, commercial or ideological influence.

Agence France-Presse supports freedom of expression and the right of journalists to exercise their profession without fear of intimidation, incarceration or physical harm.

Agence France-Presse is committed to protecting the safety of all of those who work for it.

Agence France-Presse rejects discrimination based on race, gender, nationality, religion, sexual orientation or any other factor.
